

Deccan Education Society's Post Graduate Course in Counseling Psychology

This is a one-year full-time course run autonomously by Deccan Education Society through Fergusson College. The major objective of the course is to impart the micro-skills of counseling and hands-on training in counseling to those students or professionals who wish to pursue their career in the helping field.

Structure of the course:

- 4 theory papers (Counseling, Testing, Family Dynamics and Micro-skills)
- Internships
- Training workshops
- Supervised case work

Eligibility: (According to preference)

- M.A. or B.A. with Psychology major
- Graduation with Psychology as one of the subjects
- B.H.Sc. with Child Psychology as the specialization
- M.S.W.
- B.A.M.S. / B.H.M.S.
- Graduates of other disciplines
- (Minimum 60% marks at Graduation level)

Admission procedure:

- Forms and prospectus available in Office No. 3, Main Building, Fergusson College from May 2017.
- Completed forms to be returned to the department by 30th of June
- Merit list will be put up by 5th of July.
- Personal Interview Schedule will be put up along with the merit list.
- Final list of selected students will be put up.

Course begins by the second week of July.

Course fees: Rs. 30,000/- (To be paid online)

Number of seats: 20.

For further information contact:

Department of Psychology,
Fergusson College, Pune.
Telephone number: 020-30866050.
E-mail: psychology.fc@gmail.com