About the Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology was established in 1979. Under the leadership of Dr. Shobhana Abhyankar, the department launched MAANAS: Centre for Psychological Testing and Counseling, in 2005, and the PG program (M.A.) in Psychology in 2006. Aptitude testing and career counseling is carried on at the department under the aegis of MAANAS. The PG program offers two specializations, Industrial and Organization (I/O) Psychology and Clinical Psychology. The department has successfully completed 34 batches of B.A. so far and is one of the most sought-after departments in the country.

In the year 2005, the Post Graduate Course in Counseling Psychology was launched. This is a one-year autonomous course of Deccan Education Society, and is coordinated by Dr. Megha Deuskar. This course is a skill-based module and trains students in the actual skills of counseling. The department is proud to have given the society many eminent consultants, psychologists, psychotherapists and several brilliant academicians. The department is a recognized Ph.D. Research Center of S.P. Pune University.
