Action Taken Report
Department: ECONOMICS
Year: 2021-2022

In the Students curriculum feedback, it was mentioned to focus more on real life examples in teaching, our teaching methods are in a way that gives exposure to students, we have arranged field visits. industrial visit related to syllabus, also our CE internal assignment topics are encouraging students to conduct surveys, collect data and do research work. The teaching learning process is made more students centric, involving more student participation and boosting their ability.

In Teachers curriculum feedback. meeting was conducted considering the dissatisfaction among students, the feedback were discussed with those particular teachers and informed them to make necessary changes in your teaching and learning skills and enhance their ability in teaching process and take regular classes, also to ensure their availability as per students need.
