

1	Basic Info.	Name : Dr Chetan Sonawane Department : English Designation : Professor Contact Detail : (Mobile no., Email) 9860697099, chetan.sonawane@fergusson.edu Work experience:- -- Teaching: 22 years
2	Personal Profile	I joined as a Lecturer in English in 2000. My areas of interest are Indian Writing in English, Postcolonial English Literature and Dalit Literature. My interest in Subaltern Studies has grown recently.
3	Education Qualifications	M.A. Ph.D.
4	Employment History	02-09-2000 to 29-01-2003 Waghire College, Saswad 30-01-2003 till present- Fergusson College

5	Courses Taught	1) FYBA Compulsory English 2) SYBA Understanding Drama 3) MA-I Literary Criticism and Theory 4) MA-II Indian Writing in English 5) MA-II Postcolonial English Literature 6) MA-II New Literatures in English
6	Field of specialization	Indian Writing in English Postcolonial English Literature
7	Membership
8	Research	I did my doctoral research work on Modern Indian Fiction. The topic of my research was ‘Representation of Subaltern Pasts in Modern Indian Fiction in English and in English Translation’.
9	Publications	Title of Research Paper	Name of Journal with Volume No., Year	ISSN/ ISBN and Page Number.

		Bhalchandra Nemade:A Nativist Critic	Dialogue, Vol-III, No-I 2007, 45-52	0974-5556
		Mahasweta Devi's Titu Mir: A Story of Subaltern Solidarity	Dialogue Vol IX, No 2 2013, 38-46	0974-5556
		Mysticism in Tukaram's Abhangs	Research and Criticism Vol 5 2014, 87-93	2229-3639
		Reconstruction of Alternative History in Amitav Ghosh's The Glass Palac	Yashashri Vol IX, Issue 2 and 3 2016, 57-71	2319-5851
		The Editing of Shakespearean Plays and Postmodernism	Labyrinth Vol 8, No 2	0976-0814
10	Awards, Honors
11	Event Organized/ coordinated

12	Additional Activities
----	-----------------------	--